What One Surrogate Said:

In a recent case before a Surrogate's Court, involving the continuance of the New York Life Insurance and Trust Company as Guardian for certain children, the Surrogate took occasion to say:

"In my opinion, the New York Life Insurance & Trust Company has lived up to every obligation, legal, ethical or moral, in its relationship to these children. It is an old established institution, well managed, solvent, making a specialty of trust business, careful in the management of estates, and its officers have had long and wide experience in trust investments. If this were an application de novo, in view of the situation, I rather think the respondent better qualified to be appointed than any other person or institution."
